Does Eagle Rock need a night life? Will the "GLASSELLLAND" sign return to a Glassell Park hillside? How to celebrate the Silver Lake Reservoir's 110th birthday? These are some of the questions and issues coming up at this week's round of neighborhood meetings.

Before You Go: It's a good idea to check with organizations to find out if meeting items and times have been changed or postponed.

Eagle Rock

City Planning is holding an open house and public hearing http://cityplanning.lacity.org/MeetingsNHearings/dsp_viewFileDetail.cfm?filename=47910 about making changes to the Colorado Boulevard Specific Plan, including an amendment that would allow new restaurants, bars and other businesses to stay open beyond 9 p.m. This will be the community's opportunity to make any comments or concerns to the administrative records. Wednesday, November 19. Glassell Park Several properties are on the Glassell Park Neighborhood Council's radar for either possible motions and/or letters of support. http://ens.lacity.org/ensnc/glassellparknc/ensncglassellparknc76991507_11182014.pdf They include: An empty lot at 3406 N. The Paseo; a potential 10-unit, small lot development at 3363 N. Andrita Street; a transit shelter; the "GLASSELLLAND" sign and a letter of support for Eagle Rock Brewery. Tuesday, November 18.

Iver Lake

A meeting of Silver Lake Neighborhood Council http://ens.lacity.org/ensnc/silverlakenc/ensncsilverlakenc83391600_11172014.pdf committees will consider spending $2,000 on an art installation that would be part of the festivities planned to celebrate the 110th anniversary of the Silver Lake Reservoir. 5 I'm in a BIG SHOW!

Mon Nov 17, 2014 10:25 pm (PST) . Posted by: asncaalert

The annual Arroyo Arts Collective DISCOVERY TOUR ("Change is in the Air") is this SATURDAY, November 22 from 9:30 to 5:00. If you've participated before you know that it starts at the Lummis Home historic site on Avenue 43, where you can get tickets, see photographic representations of some of the work, and scour a map handout to find where you want to go. Maybe four homes or galleries will take up your day, maybe 15. You can't do them all! Tickets are $10 in advance available at Galco's Old World Grocery in Highland Park or on line at www.arroyoartscollective.org <http://www.arroyoartscollective.org>. $15 day of tour.

I will be, again, at artist Gwen Freeman's home at the top of Mount Washington. Not only is she a great artist with a gorgeous studio featured in the LA Times, her house is a 1908 Craftsman on the National Historic Register. Seeing the house is worth the price! Below are a few examples of the three dimensional things I have done for this show. Hope to see you there. —Jack

7 All Things HERMON. . . \[How Hermon Does “Clean”

Mon Nov 17, 2014 10:27 pm (PST) . Posted by: asncaalert

All Things HERMON. . . (11/17/14)

 With Hermon's "Clean Team" celebrating 12 years of monthly clean-ups, we partnered with our Fresco Community Market, KIND Healthy Snacks, and Councilmember Jose Huizar two days ago -- Saturday, November 15 -- for some "clean" fun, and WOW it was amazing.

More than 70 people gathered in front of Fresco Community Market, registered, and then chose from the big map which part of Hermon they wanted to clean. Next, it was free goodie bags from KIND, T-shirts and reusable shopping bags from our Councilmember, then breakfast and coffee. Graffiti Busters showed up (also thanks to the Council Office) and made the rounds with their paint-mobile covering over tagging and graffiti. Northeast Trees even showed up in the parking lot and many people walked away from there with big smiles carrying young trees with the promise of years of shade to come.

We had lots of students from Hermon's Los Angeles International Charter High School helping. Many cleaned all around the perimeter of their historic school site, while a posse of what I called our "cowboys" jumped in three residents' pickup trucks and were driven systematically up and down every street in our neighborhood stopping for the "cowboys" to wrangle any discarded bulky item into the truck, then into the big City bin.

By the way, any other time during the year -- it's easy to get your bulky items picked up. Dial 3-1-1 Friday morning and report what you have. Then just make sure it's out to the curb by 6:00 that next Monday morning.

Meanwhile, Bushnell Way Elementary students, families, and community members took on a long neglected stairwell the students use on their walks to school. Word is it's now immaculate.

Also, the Monterey Pass sidewalk was blown clean, and our bridges made spic and span.

Lots of folks asked when we were doing this again (very cool). It's every FIRST Saturday of the month -- the next one on December 6. We meet at 8 a.m. (not 10 a.m.) by Monterey Donuts in the Plaza. We catch up on all kinds of neighborhood news and tell ourselves we'll work off the yummy warm donuts we're devouring during the hour and a half of clean-up, then off we go with the huge bags and gloves all over the community.

Just to give you some idea of the magnitude of the effect "Clean Team" has had on our community: since beginning in November of 2002, we've collected 16-17 tons of trash using something like 1,500 huge City bags and about 2,000 pairs of vinyl gloves from the City. We've painted out graffiti with about 120 gallons of recycled City paint. If you could visualize, that's enough paint to cover a wall 4-foot high that is the length of 50 football fields.

So if you've been thinking about looking for a way to volunteer in your community that really makes a difference, consider an hour and a half each month with the "Clean Team." It's very empowering.

One decade ago, 1000 volunteer "Clean Team" hours were put towards the matching grant fund that originally helped fund the Hermon monument sign on the Monterey median. Councilmember Huizar is now having that same art piece refurbished with newer and higher grade paints, as well as having the monument lit for evening enjoyment. That unveiling party will be in January.

So, to all the good folks that came out and pitched in to make a difference in their community ... THANK YOU -- for being our neighbors and part of what makes this place such a special place to call home.

 An important specially called Hermon-Community Safety Forum will be held next week, Tuesday, November 25 at 7 p.m. -- in the Hermon Church Fellowship Hall, 5800 Monterey Road. Our brand new Sr. Lead Officer Austin Fernald will be there to address your Hermon issues and concerns. (He has been in transition to being our SLO while still having responsibilities in Lincoln Heights for a while longer -- making it a little more complicated).

For those of you on Hermon Nextdoor, you may have read of some residents' recent concerns regarding issues of safety. There has been some good info, but there has also been some of what could be considered misleading info and rants (but mostly from other surrounding communities). We did find out that a bloody camper door in nearby Debs Park was just a left-behind movie prop and not a crime scene, but as with any series of posts with opinions and questions, the subject seemed to drive home the need to get factual answers from the LAPD and perhaps a more solution-driven perspective and response.

The Hermon Safety Committee will host the meeting and all Hermon folks are invited and encouraged to attend. For this meeting, we'll be taking questions that deal with issues specific to Hermon. We'll clear up contact information and perhaps most importantly we'll discuss and begin plans for how we can get optimal security in our community.

Please take a digital break next Tuesday and be at the meeting IN person. Get information straight from the LAPD, and get acquainted with your neighbors (they're wonderful). Our goal is to be effective partners with the LAPD, our Councilmember, and the City -- to together keep Hermon a great place to live.

So, let's stand up – and SHOW up. See you the 25th . . .

Because it's all good
In Hermon . . . where quirky works, families return,
and dogs sleep all night long.

Wendi

By VALENTINA SILVA, Eastside Food Bites

El Sereno – File this under “only in L.A.” If you love fried chicken and churros, you can get both, served together as one, at Mama Churro y Mas in El Sereno. The small eatery has been serving their special, which includes two pieces of chicken and four mini churros for $4.99, for a couple of years now, and it's just what you'd expect: sweet and savory deep-fried goodness, plus a dipping sauce of your choice.

The chicken is pretty good. The skin is reminiscent of Church's Chicken in texture—it's crispy, light, and not too greasy. The pieces are normal in size and not gigantically pumped up with steroids (seemingly), which helps them stay moist. No, it's probably not the best chicken you've ever had, but it's tasty and goes well with the churros, which are easily the stars of the dish. Made to order and piping hot, they have a crispy outer shell and a soft inside that melts in your mouth.

If fried chicken isn't your thing, or you just want more churros, the Churros Rellenos are nothing short of delicious. For $2.50, you get one big churro cut in half and filled with your choice of cajeta (caramel), chocolate, strawberry, or cream. The cajeta is nice and gooey with more than just one-note sweetness. The chocolate, which tastes to be a standard Hershey's type sauce, pales in comparison. You can also get your fried dough fix in the form of an ice cream sandwich—two o-shaped churros with a big scoop of ice cream in the center—that's all the rage these days, or an ice cream sundae with four small churros and lots of whipped cream.

Any way you do it here, you're set.
